Directions

By Metro (recommended)

From Termini Station you would take the A line 8 stops to Cipro Metro Station, once exiting you will see your guide holding a Roman Food Tour sign. Do not walk up the stairs to the high street.

This is our recommended public Trasportation for our meeting point and is expecially easy from the Termini, Spanish Steps and Barberini area

From the B line metro

If your hotel is near the B line you would want to take that to Termini station and switch to the A line from there it is 8 stops to Cipro Metro

Tips for taking the metro

When entering the metro you will see a machine that accepts coins and small bills (maximum 10 euros or you will not receive change) The cost for a one way ticket is 1.50 cents and lasts up to 90 minutes including any bus or metro transfers. When entering the metro you will slide your ticket through and it will give you your time stamp.

When entering the metro it is best to enter the either the front or back to avoid congestion and pick pockets.

By Taxi

Ask your taxi driver to take you to Metro Cipro (cipro is pronounced Cheepro) You want to be dropped on the high street Via Cipro in front of the Red M. Once arriving walk down the stairs into the small piazza and your guide will be waiting for you there.

Tips for taking a taxi in Rome

When taxis are called in Italy the charge starts from when the call is made not when you enter. If you are staying in the center there will be plenty of Taxi stands in the area and it could save you money by walking directly to them.

When you enter a taxi between 7 A.M. and 10 p.m the meter will start at 2.80 euros from 10 p.m. on the service charge starts at 5.80. Also on holidays and Sundays the meter starts at 5.80

Taxi from Fiumicino

For getting to Rome from Fumincino Airport by Taxi you should be charged a flat rate of 48 euros to anywhere in the city center

By Bus

Campo di Fiori/Piazza Navona/Pantheon area

if you are staying near the Pantheon, Campo di Fiori or Piazza Navona area you can take the 492 at Largo Argentina and Cipro will be your last stop on the metro. Another option would be to take the 931 bus to Piazza Dei Eroi although this can be a little trickier. From Piazza Dei Eroi you would walk 3 minutes on Via Cipro to get to our meeting point. When you arrive please walk down the stairs and your guide will be waiting in the small piazza holding a Roman food tour sign

Trastevere

From Trastevere you could take the H bus to Termini station and go 8 stops on the A line to Cipro but we would recommend a taxi which would be about 10 to 12 euros

Tips when taking the bus

When entering a Bus make sure to buy a ticket first and when you enter stamp it. Tickets can be purchased at any newsstand or Tabaccheria shop

Walking/GPS

You want to use the Cipro Metro Station as your destination once arriving walk down the stairs into the small Piazza and your guide will be waiting for you holding The Roman Food Tour sign.
